

When Dementia-Related Caregiving Ends: A Grief Support Program

Donna Lawrence

Education and Outreach Coordinator, Northern Region
Alzheimer Society of Nova Scotia

Donna Lawrence is the Education and Outreach Coordinator for the northern region, serving East Hants, Colchester and Cumberland Counties.

Before joining the Alzheimer Society, Donna worked in congregational ministry with The United Church of Canada. For more than 20 years, she has accompanied people on their journeys through dementia, grief and death.

In 2019, Donna completed End-of-Life Doula training through Douglas College.